

June 2, 2021

Patrick Sheahan
Consultant Otolaryngologist - Head, Neck & Thyroid Surgeon
Department of Otolaryngology - Head & Neck Surgery
South Infirmary-Victoria University Hospital, Cork
Professor of Otolaryngology, University College Cork, Cork, Ireland
President, Irish Head and Neck Society

Dear Professor Sheahan,

On behalf of the Canadian Association of Head and Neck Surgical Oncology, I am delighted to learn of the establishment of the Irish Head and Neck Society. Congratulations to you as the inaugural president, and the head and neck surgeons of Ireland.

The head and neck surgical communities of our two countries have enjoyed a longstanding relationship that is based on the common commitment to the highest standards in patient care, scholarship, and education.

Through the IHNS, we look forward to even stronger collaborations between our two societies as we go forward together.

Congratulations and best wishes,

John Yoo, MD, FRCSC, FACS
President, Canadian Association of Head and Neck Surgical Oncology

Dean, Schulich School of Medicine & Dentistry
Western University